"MAXIMIZING YOUR MEMORY – FOR TRAINERS" WITH MICHAEL LAWRENCE GREEN

In today's fast-paced high-pressure business environment, trainers are being constantly challenged to keep it all together and remember what they need to deliver solutions in a dynamic, energizing way. Challenges such as ongoing organizational changes and demands, constant travel, rotating hotel rooms, and changing audiences contribute to lapses in memory.

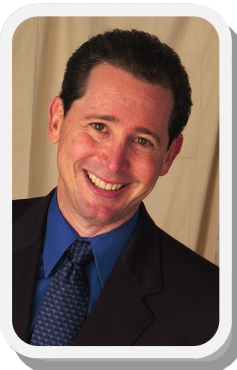

Do you have to sit by idly and let your memory, the details, and your clients satisfaction slip away? No! You can take a proactive approach toward improving your performance by attending Maximizing Your Memory— for Trainers! When you decide to enhance your memory skills — you take action to improve your performance and the quality of your life. What is your memory worth to you? It's priceless!

Within this dynamic and energizing 1 hour session, you will:

- ◆ Test your current memory
- ◆ Learn vital memory influencers
- ◆ Learn a new memory retention technique
- ◆ Learn to Remember Faces and Names
- ◆ Have fun!
